Dear Sir, re docket 98B-1230, 97P-0197, 96P-3418.

I really think that the FDA must ban the terrible forced molting of laying hens due to the fact that it is cruel and is a primary cause of infectious diseases in hens and eggs and those that eat hens and eggs.

I realise that the FDA was petitioned in April 1998 to ban the forced molting and I would like to see this petition granted without too much delay.

Yours sincerely,

Vera Kramer.
